Photos for reference only. Your actual room layout may differ depending upon type, location, room capacity, and location.

Booking Policy

- All guests are required to have proper identification. The name on your government-issued photo ID must match the name on your cruise booking. Passports are recommended but not required. You may sail with your official birth certificate and government-issued photo ID. Keep in mind, you may also need to carry proof of name changes (ex: marriage license) if the name on your birth certificate & photo ID do not match.
- Rooms are not assigned until you have paid at least $600 total for double and single occupancy rooms. For rooms with 3 or more people, the amount is $300 per person.
- This trip is 100% nonrefundable. To protect your investment and yourself from unforeseen circumstances before or while traveling, travel insurance is encouraged for all travelers. Click here to get a free insurance quote or purchase from a source of your own choosing.
- The initial amount you are paying during the registration/booking process will be processed as 2 transactions:
 - Transaction #1 allows us to hold space for the group and see how many rooms/room types are needed. It also allows you the flexibility to make payments to meet the full required deposit. This will be processed by the supplier (Royal Caribbean).
 - Transaction #2 will be displayed as "TJ *Tracey Lillard" or "TJ *The Travel Bug Vaca" for administrative fees.
- All Cancellation and Change Requests must be sent to us via email. We do not accept these requests by phone/text for tracking purposes. Some changes may incur a fee, which will be due upon request.
- If you need an alternative payment option after deposit, please reach out to us well before the final payment is due so we can try to assist you as best as possible.

Final Payments are due by 5 pm EST on June 1, 2026

Only attendees who have booked via The Travel Bug Vacations will be able to attend any group events and/or receive group benefits.
